The role

Oxford Botanic Garden and Arboretum is seeking a qualified and experienced horticulturist to help cultivate, maintain and develop the collection of plants grown within the outdoor areas of the Botanic Garden. You will contribute to the planning and development of the work of the collection, working closely with the Curator and Head of Horticulture (CHH) to achieve high horticultural standards. You will oversee and participate in the day-to-day cultivation of the collection. In addition to the horticultural duties, you will lead public education activities and supervise trainees and volunteers.

Responsibilities

- Assisting the CHH with the planning and delivery of projects at the Botanic Garden, and where appropriate, at the Arboretum.
- Supervising trainees, apprentices, junior staff and volunteers.
- Contributing to the development of the collections through sourcing plants from nurseries and other collections, with the guidance from the CHH.
- Liaising with contractors conducting work in the Botanic Garden.

- Responsible for the provision and stock checking of first aid points at the Botanic Garden.
- General cultivation duties, including watering, feeding, propagation, planting, pruning, training and lawn maintenance operations; routine use, maintenance and inspection of machinery and equipment; working at height with ladders and mobile scaffolds.
- Application of herbicides, pesticides, fertilisers or biological control agents.
- Supporting the Plant Records Officer with labelling and collections database management.
- Supporting the Senior Propagator with propagation of plants grown in the collections at the Botanic Garden and Arboretum.
- Giving guided tours and delivering short courses on the public education programme.
- Collecting material for teaching distribution, and providing practical assistance to research workers at the Garden.

Essential Selection criteria

1. Demonstrable experience of supervision of junior staff, trainees and volunteers.
2. Level 3, or higher, horticultural qualification. (Please refer to this website for further information: <https://www.gov.uk/what-different-qualification-levels-mean>).
3. NPTC Pa1 (safe use of pesticides) and Pa6 (Handheld applicators).
4. A demonstrable awareness of current H&S compliance legislation.
5. Specialist knowledge of the temperate plant collections relevant to those held by Oxford Botanic Garden.
6. Extensive knowledge and experience of the use and maintenance of a wide range of garden machinery and equipment.

Desirable Selection criteria

1. Experience from working in a public and or heritage setting
2. Specialism in a particular taxonomically- or geographically-defined group of plants.
