Job description

Overview of the role

The post is new. The Heberden Coin Room has not had a collections manager in recent years. Reporting to the Keeper/Deputy Keeper, the post-holder will be responsible for ensuring that the Coin Study, Coin Store and displays are secure, tidy, clean, well-organised, fully equipped and maintained on a regular basis. He/she will also develop and maintain collections management, reporting and volunteering systems, operational procedures and documentation standards, and looking after the departmental off-site storage and archives.

Responsibilities

- Ensure that the Coin Study and Store are secure, tidy, clean, well-organised and equipped.
- Oversee and keep track of regular maintenance and monitoring tasks in the Coin Store and the Money Gallery.
- Manage the coin collection in collaboration with the curators. Administer any departmental off-site storage and collections (no numismatic collections are off-site but archives and furniture are).
- Develop and maintain collections management systems and operational procedures; train Coin Room staff in their use. Serve as departmental administrator for the Ashmolean's Collections Management System (CMS), Digital Assets Management Software (DAMS) and the HCR WebApp (<https://hcr.ashmus.ox.ac.uk/>).
- Liaise with Security, Picture Library, the Photo Studio, Facilities, the Conservation Department, Documentation, the Registrars and other departments to ensure best practice.
- Ensure that Museum and departmental documentation standards are adhered to and assist in their development.
- When required, oversee the departmental system for volunteers; act as one of the departmental administrators for BetterImpact.
- Manage the numismatic displays within the museum including object monitoring, conservation and object retrieval for visitors; assist curators in the organization, mounting and dismantling of exhibitions, as requested by the Keeper/Deputy Keeper.
- Co-ordinate loans, acquisitions, photographic orders, teaching requests and visits that involve objects from more than one curatorial area.
- Assist curatorial staff with the invigilation of visitors, as requested by the Keeper/Deputy Keeper.
- Attend relevant departmental, museum and GLAM meetings and committees.
- Contribute to the maintenance of the departmental websites (External: Ashmolean official webpage & WebApp; Internal: Ark).
- Act as a courier for UK and international loans when required.

Other duties

- Provide content for reports and performance indicators.
- Undertake any necessary training identified.

- Comply with health and safety regulations, act as the departmental Health and Safety Officer and maintain the Department's risk assessments.
- Comply with the policies and procedures set out in the Handbook for University Support Staff/Academic Related Staff.
- Any other duties that may be required from time to time commensurate with the grade of the job

The Ashmolean Museum reserves the right to make reasonable amendments to the job description in consultation with the post-holder at any time.

The Heberden Coin Room

The Heberden Coin Room is a department of the Ashmolean Museum, in the University of Oxford. The Coin Room aims to hold collections of coins of all periods and all countries, and also collections of medals, tokens, and paper money. Housing c. 300,000 objects, it is one of the leading international coin cabinets. Particular strengths are the fields of Greek, Roman, Celtic, Byzantine, Medieval, Islamic, Indian, and Chinese coinages. It organizes permanent and temporary exhibitions and contributes to the Museum's Education programmes. The Museum currently includes a popular and accessible Money Gallery, numismatic displays in twenty-five other galleries, and an elegant Coin Study Room for academics, students, and members of the public. The Department contributes enthusiastically to a wide variety of access initiatives. In addition to its curatorial role, the Coin Room is a leading international centre for teaching and research in numismatics and monetary history. Curators currently supervise research degrees and teach courses for those undertaking masters degrees under Classics, Byzantine Studies, Oriental Studies, History, and Archaeology, and the undergraduate degree in Classical Archaeology and Ancient History. They also support the teaching of numismatics in other universities and run a Visiting Scholar Programme.

How to apply

Applications are made through our e-recruitment system and you will find all the information you need about how to apply on our Jobs website <https://www.jobs.ox.ac.uk/how-to-apply>

Your application will be judged solely on the basis of how you demonstrate that you meet the selection criteria stated in the job description.

As part of your application you will be asked to provide details of two referees and indicate whether we can contact them now.

You will be asked to upload a CV and a supporting statement. The supporting statement must explain how you meet each of the selection criteria for the post using examples of your skills and experience. This may include experience gained in employment, education, or during career breaks (such as time out to care for dependants).

All applications must be received by midday UK time on the closing date stated in the online advertisement.

Supporting Statement

Please note that if you do not upload a completed supporting statement and a CV, we will be unable to consider your application for this role.

The inclusion of the supporting statement and CV is a mandatory step in the online application process.

All applications must be received by 12:00 midday UK time on the closing date stated in the online advertisement.

References

Please give the details of two people who have agreed to provide a reference for you. If you have previously been employed, your referees should be people who have managed you for a considerable period, and at least one of them should be your formal line manager in your most recent job. Otherwise, they may be people who have supervised you in a recent college, school, or voluntary experience. It is helpful if you can tell us briefly how each referee knows you (e.g. 'line manager', 'college tutor'). Your referees should not be related to you.

Your referees will be asked to comment on your suitability for the post and to provide details of the dates of your employment; and of any disciplinary processes which are still considered 'live'. We will only take up references at offer stage.
