

SAID BUSINESS SCHOOL UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

Development Administrator

Hybrid (two days per week onsite), Park End Street, Oxford
Grade 5: £31,459 - £36,616 per annum including the Oxford University Weighting of £1,500 per annum

Permanent, full time (36.5 hours per week)

Saïd Business School, University of Oxford

Vacancy reference: 177097

The role

The Development Administrator is an instrumental role in the Operations sub-team within the Development & Alumni Relations team. The team works with senior academics and donors to fundraise for academic projects, scholarships, capital projects and entrepreneurship; the fundraisers spend much of their time out of the office initiating and maintaining important internal and external relationships. The Development Administrator's role will include: financial administration and gift processing, including invoicing and tracking payments to receipt; implementation of stewardship activity including assisting with events; and general administrative duties.

Working under the direction of the Donor Relations Manager at Saïd Business School, the post holder will have the opportunity to work with key stakeholders, academics, donors, and departments across a range of projects.

Development at Oxford is well-established, and this role has the scope to work on several important and high-profile projects.

The duties of the post are set out as they are envisaged at present, but it will be important for the person appointed to be flexible and adaptable, and able to contribute to the development of the fundraising function at the School. All staff operate as a team and, while each has his or her own responsibilities, they are expected to assist each other in peak periods. The post holder will need to become conversant with the University as a whole, especially with the numerous academic staff and volunteers.

Responsibilities

Financial administration and gift processing (40%)

- Responsibility for gift processing from the point of receiving a signed gift agreement – liaising with Gift Registry to add pledges and input invoicing dates, tracking cash to receipt, and sending acknowledgements to the donor.
- Timely and efficiently send invoices and requests for payments to donors, adhering to pipeline trackers, and track them until the point of receipt ensuring payment reminders are sent if necessary.

- Liaise with Gift Registry and Finance teams to complete regular reconciliation and deal with any anomalies as they arise.
- Liaising with each fundraiser, ensure that all records and DARS database prospect plans are inputted correctly and regularly updated reflecting accurate gift opportunities and pledges.

Stewardship and event administration (40%)

- Draft and send thank you letters and communications for donors, DARS database to be kept updated accordingly. Take responsibility for regularly reviewing and updating the thanking matrix and thank you letter templates, and manage the membership of recognition circles.
- Provide support to the Donor Relations Manager in implementing a programme of events for effective donor stewardship events, gala dinners, signing ceremonies, and donor visits etc.
- Assist the Donor Relations Manager with the production of scholarship reports by developing strong scholar relationships that facilitate outreach for the reports. Be involved in creating a sense of scholar community, both within current and alumni scholar groups, through events and communications.

General administrative and database support (20%)

- Ensure and maintain accurate records for all donors to Oxford Saïd, in accordance with current GDPR/PECR protocols, ensuring donor contact is comprehensively logged.
- Maintain up-to-date filing and other administrative procedures for the Associate Director of Operations.

- Provide DARS data entry and administrative support for the team, ensuring accuracy across all sections.
- Attend events and represent the School in a way in which effectively promotes the School and enhances its reputation.

Selection criteria

Essential selection criteria

- Some professional experience of working with access databases/CRMs and excellent IT skills including the ability to sort, filter, and organise data using Excel, and comprehensive use of Word for presenting information.
- Experience of maintaining effective administrative systems with the ability to identify fresh approaches to streamline processes.
- Excellent communication skills both oral and written with a firm understanding of the need for data sensitivity and GDPR compliance.
- Previous data management experience and an ability to research, collate, report, and present information to a high standard to a variety of stakeholders.
- Accuracy, efficiency, and meticulous attention to detail.
- An ability to drive the completion of multiple projects simultaneously, prioritise workload to meet deadlines and the ability to act independently and decisively when the situation demands it. Proactivity to ensure tasks are seen through to completion.
- Demonstrable ability of working effectively with others, co-operating with colleagues and helping the team to achieve its goals demonstrating outstanding interpersonal skills.
- The flexibility to work out of regular hours, when provided adequate advanced notice.

Desirable selection criteria

- Experience of using the CRM DARS.
- Previous event management experience.
- An understanding of the complex funding landscape of an academic department – which includes private philanthropy, corporate sponsorship, and institutional research support.
- Experience of gift administration in the Higher Education or charity context.

Pre-employment screening

Standard checks

If you are offered the post, the offer will be subject to standard pre-employment checks. You will be asked to provide: proof of your right-to-work in the UK; proof of your identity; and (if we haven't done so already) we will contact the referees you have nominated. Social Sciences

Oxford Saïd is a department within the Social Sciences Division, one of four academic Divisions in the University, each with considerable devolved budgetary and financial authority; and responsibility for providing a broad strategic focus across its constituent disciplines.

The Social Sciences Division represents the largest grouping of social sciences in the UK: home to a number of outstanding departments and to the internationally ranked Law Faculty; all are committed to research to develop a greater understanding of all aspects of society, from the impact of political, legal and economic systems on social and economic welfare to human rights and security. That research is disseminated through innovative graduate programmes and enhances undergraduate courses. For more information please visit <https://www.socsci.ox.ac.uk>.

How to apply

Applications are made through our e-recruitment system and you will find all the information you need about how to apply on our Jobs website <https://www.jobs.ox.ac.uk/how-to-apply>.

Your application will be judged solely on the basis of how you demonstrate that you meet the selection criteria stated in the job description.

As part of your application you will be asked to provide details of two referees and indicate whether we can contact them now.

You will be asked to upload a CV and a supporting statement. The supporting statement must explain how you meet each of the selection criteria for the post using examples of your skills and experience. This may include experience gained in employment, education or during career breaks (such as time out to care for dependants).

Please upload all documents as PDF files with your name and the document type in the filename.

All applications must be received by midday UK time on the closing date stated in the online advertisement.

If you currently work for the University please note that:

- As part of the referencing process, we will contact your current department to confirm basic employment details including reason for leaving.
- Although employees may hold multiple part-time posts, they may not hold more than the equivalent of a full time post. If you are offered this post, and accepting it would take you over the equivalent of full-time hours, you will be expected to resign from, or reduce hours in, your other posts(s) before starting work in the new post.
