Development and Alumni Engagement (DAE)

DAE is led by Liesl Elder who, as Chief Development and Alumni Engagement Officer at the University of Oxford, reports directly to the Vice-Chancellor. DAE's mission is to help secure philanthropic support for the University, and build an engaged, informed and active alumni community. Through working in partnership with academic, development, and alumni colleagues throughout the collegiate University, DAE builds enduring relationships with external constituencies – including alumni, non-alumni, corporate and foundation donors – and increases financial support for agreed academic priorities.

The office is one of the central administrative departments of the University, collectively known as University Administration and Services. Due to the nature of its work, DAE collaborates closely with a number of other units and teams, particularly Public Affairs, Finance, Research and Legal.

In 2019, the University and the colleges completed the Oxford Thinking Campaign, which raised £3.34bn, and is the most successful higher education fundraising campaign in Europe. The University is currently planning its next major campaign and, as a member of DAE, the post holder will have a key role to play in helping realise its successful delivery.

In addition to front-line fundraising and alumni engagement staff, DAE has a number of teams that cover particular support functions. These include:

- Donor Relations
- Events
- Research
- International Engagement
- Development and Alumni Relations Systems (DARS) (which supports the Development and Alumni Relations database)
- Philanthropy Writing
- Marketing and Communications

It also works closely with Gift Registry, part of the Finance Division, which records and processes donations received by the University and on behalf of colleges. In addition, there are four overseas offices whose remit includes development and alumni engagement; these offices are located in North America, Japan, Hong Kong, and Europe.

For further information please visit: Development Office \(ox.ac.uk\) and HOME | Oxford Alumni

DAE is committed to equality and values diversity. The University holds a silver Athena Swan award to recognise advancement of gender equality: representation, progression and success for all.

resignation of the substantive postholder and employment of a new postholder, whichever is the earliest.

Development and Alumni Engagement values

The following points lay down the foundations of DAE's working ethos, culture and values. Aspirational and celebratory in turn, they provide a central framework for individual members of staff and teams, encouraging personal and professional growth.

- We value each other – We respect the professional expertise of our colleagues. An approachable, friendly and kind office, we work in an environment where transparency of action and clarity of intent create openness and trust.
- We work collaboratively – Whether within our own teams, across DAE, the collegiate University, or beyond, working collaboratively is second nature to us, and enables us to navigate complicated landscapes successfully.
- We go beyond – We prize working with a high degree of autonomy and trust, and deliver a wide range of projects to the very highest standards. We are committed to personal, professional development.
- We are part of something bigger – Our work supports the strategic priorities of the University of Oxford. We take pride in the contribution we – individually and collectively – make to the University.

The role

The University of Oxford is founded on the quality of its teaching, scholarship and service to society. It is working harder and faster than ever to create new knowledge and find answers to global problems, helping to make a more equitable society and educate the next generation of leaders.

Based in the Development and Alumni Engagement Office (DAE) within the University Administration Offices at Wellington Square, the Global Engagement Team works under the direction of the DAE's Director of Global Philanthropy and the University's Local and Global Engagement Officer to enhance and support the global engagement activities of the University of Oxford.

The role is key to ensuring that the vital planning and administrative tasks that underpin the work of the International Engagement Office are carried out in a timely and organised manner. There will also be scope for the role holder to lead on their own projects in agreement with the Senior Global Engagement Officer.

Key relationships: Senior Global Engagement Officer, International Engagement Officer, Director of Global Philanthropy, Local and Global Engagement Officer.

Purpose: To meet the objectives outlined below and other key strategic priorities as identified by the University.

The post holder will be able to use the support services provided (accounting, database, communications, stewardship and research). The post holder will be based in central Oxford, but they may be able to agree a pattern of regular remote working with their line manager.

The line manager will regularly review progress. There may be opportunities for career development within the office structure. DAE seeks to support and encourage staff to help them reach their potential, providing access to appropriate courses and training whenever possible, as well as a comprehensive induction process.

DAE's work covers a wide range of activities and priorities which will inevitably change from day to day. All staff operate as a team, and, while each has their own responsibilities, they are expected to assist each other in peak periods. The post holder will need to become conversant with the University as a whole and especially with the numerous academic staff and volunteers.

Responsibilities

The duties of the post are set out as they are envisaged at present, but it will be important for the person appointed to be versatile and adaptable, and able to contribute to the development of the fundraising and alumni engagement functions of the collegiate University.

- Take responsibility for mapping the University's major links and collaborations in key regions of the world.
- Maintain the Global Engagement Office website to ensure it showcases the breadth of exciting global activity taking place across the University.
- Produce short written content for circulation via communication channels, including newsletters and website.
- Support the Global Engagement Officer to manage the University's membership of international university networks, such as the League of European Research Universities.
- Arrange logistics for travel overseas organised by the Global Engagement Office
- Plan and organise a number of international delegations visiting the University of Oxford.
- Undertake a small number of administrative tasks for the Global Engagement Officer

You will also carry out any other duties which are requested by the line manager and are commensurate with the grade of this post.

Selection criteria

Essential selection criteria

- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills, including the ability to interact with confidence with people at a variety of levels of seniority and from a variety of cultures;
- Excellent organisation and IT skills, experience using Microsoft Office software;
- Experience of managing multiple important activities at the same time, prioritise effectively, manage own time, and meet deadlines;
- Strong writing skills with the ability to summarise complex information in a concise, easy to understand format;

Desirable selection criteria

- Experience of working at Oxford or another leading university;
- Experience of organising VIP visits;
- Advanced IT skills. Including using task management tools and emerging AI enhanced software, such as Chat GPT and Microsoft Co-Pilot;
- International experience, either from working overseas, with international stakeholders or from extensive travel;
- A keen interest in international affairs.

Pre-employment screening

Standard checks

If you are offered the post, the offer will be subject to standard pre-employment checks. You will be asked to provide: proof of your right-to-work in the UK; proof of your identity; and (if we haven't done so already) we will contact the referees you have nominated. You will also be asked to complete a health declaration so that you can tell us about any health conditions or disabilities for which you may need us to make appropriate adjustments.

Please read the candidate notes on the University's pre-employment screening procedures at:
